DETAILED ACTION

Please note the new examiner of record.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The indicated allowability of claims 6-11 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Moore '108 , Vanell '126 and Gurusamy et al '290. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 5, 6 and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Vanell, 6,514,126. Please refer to figures 3 and 8

4. Claims 1, 2, 5 -8 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Moore 6,306,008. Please see figure 2, and column 6, lines 31-36 and lines 60 – column 7 lines 11. Note that the gimbal connection between the dresser and shaft which allows the dresser to move freely relative to the shaft in a vertical direction. The examiner considers this to be an automatic aligning roller bearing, as the dresser "rolls" relative to the gimbal.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Moore 6,306,008. '008 does not disclose a kinetic frictional resistance against movement of the piston in the cylinder to be 0.5 kg or less. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have provided '008 with the range of frictional resistance claimed, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. Claims 9, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Moore, '008 in view of Vanell '126. '008 does not disclose that the dresser shaft has a flange having through holes and that the dresser is provided with a plurality of pins extending through the holes in the flange. In a similar device, '126, figure 3, teaches connecting a dresser to a dresser shaft via a flange 52 with through holes 62, and pins 50. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have provided '008 with the connecting structure of '126, to allow the dresser tool to be easily connected or disconnected to the shaft.

9. Claims 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Vanell '126 in view of Gurusamy et al, 6,033,290. '126 does not disclose a specific bearing between the dresser and shaft. In a conditioning device, '290 teaches providing a roller bearing between the shaft and dresser, to reduce the friction between the shaft and dresser as the dresser moves vertically on the shaft. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have provided '126 with the roller bearings taught by '290, figure 3, and column 4, lines 49-62, to "provide a smooth sliding vertical engagement".

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-17 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
